Letters by Scottish Women. An interesting collection of 40 plus manuscript letters spanning the period 1686 to 1820s. Some of the earlier letters are to Baillie Gordon of Inverness & his connections, the later ones to James & Duncan Grant of Bught, lawyers in Inverness & Provosts thereof. It is believed that these were collected by Duncan G. Warrand with a view to writing an article on the education of women, in any case, they demonstrate the development of handwriting during the period in question. The letter dated 31st March 1745 from Isabella Cuthbert, a serving woman but obviously very literate, highlights the privations of her life in the capital at the time of the "unhappie wars".

HOWARD O (Orris) L. of Warren, Maine, USA. "Life and Adventures". A curious small quarto ink manuscript vol., c.70pp. Crudely but reasonably legibly written & mainly comprising a diary, with brief daily entries, covering the writer's rural & horticultural work & his social activities, some, possibly referring to the latter, is in code or cypher (pseudo Greek or Masonic?) with rather eccentric headings & capitals & interspersed with small comic or caricature vignettes & one or two pages of musings & reflections. Mainly 1862-1863, the Civil War period but a brief review indicates that the writer was not a participant although there are very occasional references. The final leaf has a list of Howard family members & a random mention "Stonewall Jackson Sept-11-62". Gravestone in Riverview Cemetery, Warren is inscribed "O.L. Howard, Son of Thomas & Julia Howard, died Nov. 8th 1865 ... 20ys. 5ms. 24ds".
